SIXTH STRAIGHTTen-Inning Opener in St.
Louis Goes to the Browns
By Score of 3 to 2.

SCHLAFLY'S GREAT WORK

Heydon Has to Be Relieved by Wakefield Because of a Broken Finger.
Falkenberg Does Well.ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2.—After running neck and neck for ten innings yesterday, Niles patted a hit to center and scored the winning run, which defeated Washington, 3 to 2, on Tom Jones' suc-cided, and the Demon Stealer slim to left.The human needle, Falkenberg, was on the firing line for the visitors, and had everything his own way with the exception of the two innings in which the Browns scored. In the second round Jake's one-time slugger opened up on the enemy by sending in a tally. Crawford a pass from Peltz, and on Anderson's perfect sacrifice went to second. Stahl drove a slow one to Peltz who caught Cross off the base. Schlafly then smashed out a ripping double, which brought Stahl in.The Nationals tallied again in the next, the elongated pitcher himself chalking up the second run on O'Brien's error, which put him on first. Alizer's next sacrifice and Stahl's single. Then the Browns made an extra inning news-story by putting over two inners half.
So more scoring was done until the last when with two out the home team managed to eke out the winning tally.Charley Jones in the game today for the visitors and put up a good exhibition. Schlafly was also in the with the willow, getting two of the three hits made off Peltz, one of these being a two-bagger. Heydon had a finger in his throwing hand broken yesterday and will be out of the game for some time.
The score will naturally fall on Wakefield.

A COAL-BLACK TROUTColonel Tretler Finds the Fish Wonder in a Pool All by Himself.ALLENTOWN, Pa., Aug. 2.—Col. H.
C. Tretler, while fishing in his trout preserves, caught a piscatorial rara avis, a coal-black trout. The colonel caught him in one of the numerous pools in the beautiful and romantic creek which flows through his farm.The fact that this particular trout occupied a pool all by himself was due either to the fact that he was a fierce fighter or else that the other trout drew the color line and would not associate with him.The trout season ended yesterday, and over 5,000 of the beauties were caught this season in Colonel Tretler's preserves, and about 1,500 still remain. The waters of the ponds will now be drawn off to some extent, and all those remaining will be caught by means of nets and will then be distributed in separate inclosures for breeding purposes, while the ponds will be filled with healthy, vigorous trout fry.ARM TORN OFF BY WHEEL.
HE WALKS FIVE SQUARESROYERSFORD, Pa., Aug. 2.—John Iselt, an employe of Frank Kupka's dye works, today caught his left arm in the cog wheels of the whizzer. The arm was torn off at the elbow, and he was also badly lacerated about the face.He immediately walked to his home, a distance of five squares, and was then sent to the Phoenixville Hospital.S.S.S. RIDES THE SYSTEM OF MALARIAThe healthy color of the skin is given to it by the millions of little red corpuscles in the blood. These are the carriers of nourishment, health and strength to all parts of the body—in other words the very life of the blood. When the germs of Malaria get into this vital fluid they destroy these corpuscles and rob the blood of its rich, life-sustaining qualities, rendering it thin, weak and watery and unable to supply the system with the needed strength to resist disease. Then the symptoms of Malaria, such as pale, sallow complexions, weak vitality, poor appetite, deranged digestion, a general "let down" condition of the system, and perhaps chills and slight fever, show that this insidious disease is gradually affecting the entire health. Malaria must be removed from the system through the circulation, and the medicine to accomplish this is S. S. S. It not only cleanses the blood of all impure, unhealthy matter, but rids the system of Malaria, and restores the blood to a strong, healthy condition. S. S. S., besides removing the germs of Malaria, builds up and gives tone and vigor to the entire system by its fine tonic effects. Malaria is a blood disease, and S. S. S. cures it because it is a perfect blood purifier. Book on the blood and any medical advice without charge.

BALD'S CAR GOING FAST MILE

EDDIE BALD HERE
FOR AUTO RACESWill Drive Fastest Car in World at Benning Next Saturday.The above picture shows the famous Stanley Lightning Bug winning the world's one-mile championship at Ormond last winter, covering the mile in 35 seconds. Among the cars in the rear were the famous 10-horsepower Napier, driven by MacDonald; the 10-horsepower Mercedes, driven by Wallace, and Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Fiat, driven by Sartori.The Lightning Bug will be piloted in the races at Benning next Saturday by Eddie Bald, who is entered in every event in which Oldfield will drive and is particularly anxious to defeat the champion at his own game. Bald is one of the most nifty track men that has ever driven a racing car. His great experience gained as a bicycle rider, when he held the title of world's champion and was known as the "Cannon Ball," qualified him for auto driving.
It was as a cyclist that Oldfield also gained his track experience.Bald arrived in the city last night from New York, where he has been looking after the designing of his new car with which he expects to make a front position in the Vanderbilt Cup race. Oldfield will arrive in the city this evening, as his private car which contains his racing outfit reached here this morning.Among the special events added to the program in addition to the heavy cars which will be driven by Oldfield, Bald and others, will be that for stripped cars, irrespective of weight and horsepower. The cars excluded are the Green Dragon, of Oldfield, and the steamer of Earlwood, and a few entries from Baltimore and those of Johnny Lutz Thomas and Packard, of this city. The Marine Band has been engaged to furnish the music and Washington promises to have the finest met in the national circuit, which opens in the city and includes the entire Eastern coast.SIXTH BARELY WINS

Calvary was unfortunate because her players could not hit the ball oppor-tunately. The feature was the erratic twirling of Sixth's pitcher, which seemed to be due to absence of older players.Sixth, R. H. O. A. E. Calvary, R. H. O. A. E.

WESTERN TENNIS TITLECHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Kreigh Collins, twice winner of the Western tennis championship in singles, yesterday won the title for the third time when he met Nat C. Emerson, of Cincinnati, winner of the tournament in singles at the Kenwood Country Club.Collins won the first two sets, 6-2, 6-4.
In the next set Emerson took a decided brace and won, 6-3. In the last set Emerson seemed to be off his game and Collins won the set, 6-2.

OLD DOMINIONS RICK.

The Old Dominion ball team of Alexandria, is complaining about its treatment at the hands of the Del Ray team in Del Ray, on Tuesday. It claims that the home team cut in the fourth inning for no reason except to be beaten up to that time by 5 to 2. The Old Dominions also claim that they had to pay all their own expenses and furnish the ball.

WATERFORD STORYSpicy Words From Manager
Thompson About Game
That Was Forfeited.To the Sporting Editor of The Times:
My article appearing in your issue of July 31, in which a Waterford, Va., writer undertakes to criticize the work of Umpire Handiboe in a game played here on Saturday last between teams representing Waterford and Leesburg, is in justice to Mr. Handiboe, of your city, and to correct some statements made in the article referred to, I ask you to kindly let this article appear in your columns.That Mr. Handiboe is the best umpire ever seen on our local diamond is the unanimous opinion of all those who saw his work (except Waterford "fans," of course). Disinterested persons from various sections have made personal appeals to me to secure his services for the balance of the season.It seems almost ridiculous for me to attempt to write in defense of Ed, as well known as he is in baseball circles, as an efficient and honest umpire, but the statements of the Waterford "critic" are so undeserved and so far from being the facts that as much as I dislike to appear in print, I can but take issue with "Critic."We are already informed by him that Leesburg won two games from Waterford on the date named. He adds that the score in the first game was 4-1, but would have been "even" if (too bad that this disease "inflicts" is so contagious among losing ball "fans").His two statements that at the very beginning of the second game there was actual dissatisfaction on balls and strikes.
My memory may be at fault, but I cannot recall a single instance of any player "kicking" on these points, and it is certainly late to "spring this one." If Handiboe does not know how to judge balls and strikes, there is no man who does, in my opinion. The lack of judgment was more evident on the part of the Waterford "heavy hitters," and we venture to say they are still wearing the marks of their backs from reaching for Symonaki's curves. Too bad that he is so all over at the same time?"Critic" further states "In the fifth inning Matchless, of Waterford, was accused of hitting me, and the umpire called out at third when it was the opinion of the spectators who stood nearer than Handiboe that he was easily safe." The only spectators nearer than Handiboe were those from Waterford, and their team, "Critic" among them. Nuff said."Critic" says this decision took the life out of the Waterford team.
"Where there is life there is hope." It was Saturday. There was a plenty of "hope," but all the life Waterford ever had was taken out of them before the second game. (Let us say for Mr. Hope, you are all right, but you are "hooked up" wrong.)"Critic" also thinks Waterford "came within an ace of scoring." There is a time for everything—this is the time for laugh, and the crowd joins us. If Waterford had a chance to tie the score it was not so it could be "undone." The last, but not least, "Critic" states the "third baseman threw wild to home, the ball barely touching Devine's mitt, and going behind him. The ball was picked up by an outsider and deliberately thrown out of reach of Catcher Jones."The fact is, the ball did pass the catcher, going past him and not behind him directly, but to the right of home base, and past him, going into the crowd after passing over a fence; the runners scored and had time enough left to have scored again if necessary.
The ball was picked up outside the fence by a child not more than ten years of age, and instead of "tossing the ball away from Devine," he threw it to him, it going wild and going in the direction of the Waterford fielders and into the infield. "Critic" of course does not intend to mislead the public, his statement makes the inference plain that some outside with a view to assisting Leesburg to win, deliberately threw the ball away from the grounds, when, as a matter of fact, it was a direct benefit to Waterford.Devine contends he could have gotten the ball, but it was clearly impossible for him to have recovered it in time to have cut off the runners. The runs thus made by Leesburg were not needed at that time to win, as the score was two runs in its favor before this play and this was the eighth inning.
The only decision to have been reached by the umpire in the premises was that of a batted ball, or it was to be treated as out of the diamond entirely, and in either event the runners would have crossed the plate safe.We hear that "Critic" is a physician and "fan." If this is correct, doctor prescribe a little "anti-dote" and get over it. Shake hands and forget it.
You well know our reputation for clean ball playing. Try us again.CHARLES E. THOMPSON, Manager.

Things in the Field of SportsBASEBALL.
Morgan, Georgetown's old star, who is now with the Boston Americans, has at last found his batting eye. In Monday's game with St. Louis the former collegian got three hits out of four times up.Harry Lumley needs but two more hits to reach the century mark. He is now hitting the ball at a .339 clip.Laporte is certainly smacking out the leather these days. He and Wee Willie Keeler practically won the game for New York from Cleveland the other day. Laporte got two doubles, a single and Keeler got a three-bagger. All counted in the run column.Ben Caffyn, formerly left fielder for Des Moines, of the Clevelanders, has been sold to the Cardinals. Crawford is sure to get two doubles, a single and Keeler got a three-bagger. All counted in the run column.It is said that Karger is one of the most superstitious baseball players in either league. His worst hoodoo, according to reports, is about Karger feared dealing out a whitewash to the other side as much as Rube Waddell likes it.Among the men who can be easily counted as finds of the season, is young Crawford of the Cardinals. Crawford has been putting up as consistent a game this season as any of the old timers, and is well worth his salary.Although Mathewson is considered to be back in his old-time form, and is at present winning his games, Muggsy is always on the lookout for his statistic. When Matty goes in to pitch, McGraw will almost every time take him out to save him toward the end, if the game is well in hand.While Washington has been losing on its Western trip, Boston has been busy copping games with a frequency that is disconcerting to our brave lads.The following figures from the Boston Globe are but evidence of the differences between a baseball team and nine baseball players:
In the four games just played Chicago made 38 runs to 34 hits with 48 total to 25 hits and 32 totals; made 2 sacrifices to 1, and stole 9 bases to 0, and recorded 4 misplays to 16. It was about as poor a showing as the locals made in a series this season, and worse, by a good deal, than the showing made when the Chicagos were last here. It is bad enough when the hitting is light, but if the fielding continues as poor as it has been in the past series it is a difficult matter to land from any club.Timmy Casey is said by the Brooklyn fans to be the gamiest man in baseball, and according to the following story certainly has, at least, as much pluck as anyone in the business. During a preliminary batting practice at Brooklyn the other day, immediately before the Cardinal-Brooklyn game, Casey was hit on the head by a ball thrown by him, which slipped from the hands of Karger.
Casey was completely down and out for a few minutes, but insisted upon going back to the game, as there were several players already laid up, and he knew that his team could ill afford to lose him.

BOXING.

Dick Fitzpatrick was awarded the decision over Jack O'Keefe at the end of and a draw would have been more popular with the crowd. Referee Coffey
